

THIS monument telling the story of the rise of the Negro depicting his loyalty to the white man even while the white man was fighting to resist bitterly every effort to emancipate him from slavery, is to be erected at the entrance of the Memorial Park.

Even while a slave, the Negro helped to lay the foundation of this mighty Republic, inscribing many stages of its development in his own blood. He has the distinction and pride of being a good and faithful servant, never being disloyal to his country.
